Overview

What is the Big Canberra battery?

The Big Canberra Battery will play a crucial role in managing peak electricity use demand and in supporting the ACT's transition to a more sustainable energy future. For technical specifications of our work on the Big Canberra Battery, or to discuss engaging us on similarly ambitious battery storage projects, please contact our team.

What is the Williamsdale battery energy storage system?

The Australian Capital Territory (ACT) government and Eku Energy have commenced construction of the Williamsdale Battery Energy Storage System (BESS), a 250 MW/500 MWh project under the ACT Government's Big Canberra Battery initiative.

How much energy will a large-scale battery energy storage system provide?

The large-scale battery energy storage system (BESS) will provide at least 250 megawatts (MW) of power. This is enough energy to power one-third of Canberra for two hours during peak demand periods. This stored energy will be used to support our electricity grid.

What is a battery energy storage system (BESS)?

This is often in the early evenings when demand peaks and the sun is no longer shining. The large-scale battery energy storage system (BESS) will provide at least 250 megawatts (MW) of power. This is enough energy to power one-third of Canberra for two hours during peak demand periods.
