

Damascus Wind and Solar Energy Storage Power Station

Overview

Is wind energy a business opportunity in the Middle East?

While solar has become a popular avenue for companies in the Middle East due to its solar yield and reliability, wind energy is also becoming an opportunity for business growth. ACWA Power and Envision Energy are developing a 1.1 GW wind farm in Egypt's Suez Gulf region, which has the highest wind potential in the country.

What is a 300MW solar plant & 320mwh storage facility?

Located in Aswan, this 300MW solar plant and 320MWh storage facility is designed to feed directly into the national grid and bolster energy access in the region. The project's technical highlights include high-efficiency PV modules, advanced inverters, and a scalable BESS that enables the plant to respond quickly to changes in demand.

Who owns NAGAA Hammadi solar plant?

Scatec is the sole owner of the plant, providing EPC, O&M, and asset management for the project. Integrating the BESS at Nagaa Hammadi enables the plant to store excess solar energy and dispatch it during peak demand or at night.

Will Egypt's first large-scale solar project be a Bess project?

Egypt's Upper Qena region will soon encompass the country's first large-scale hybrid solar and BESS project.
