Overview

What is an uninterruptible power supply (UPS)?

An Uninterruptible Power Supply (UPS) is a device designed to provide backup power when the primary power source fails or when voltage levels drop below acceptable limits. UPS systems are commonly used in computers, server farms, and data centers to ensure uninterrupted operation and protect digital data from power-related disruptions.

Why do we need uninterruptible power supplies?

However, during transmission and distribution, it is subject to voltage sags, spikes and outages that can disrupt computer operations, cause data loss and damage equipment. The uninterruptible power supplies protect the connected equipment from power problems and provide battery backup during power outages.

What is a good ups with a built-in backup battery?
