What does Vietnam's Solar Policy update mean for energy storage?

Vietnam's solar policy update highlights growing role of energy storage. (Photo: iStock) Vietnam's Ministry of Industry and Trade (MOIT) has announced a new round of feed-in tariffs (FIT) for solar power, introducing location-based pricing and, for the first time, incorporating energy storage systems.

How will Vietnam's new energy storage scheme help investors?

Supa Waisayarat, Vietnam's adversary consultant at Thailand's Super Energy Corporation, noted that the new scheme supports the adoption of storage and provides developers and investors with more transparent pricing, which could encourage more power purchase agreements (PPAs) and improve financing confidence.

What are the requirements for a battery project in Vietnam?

The Vietnamese authorities also decided that battery projects under the FIT scheme must have at least 10% of a PV plant's capacity and offer at least 2 hours of storage. According to the latest statistics from the International Renewable Energy Agency (IRENA), Vietnam had approximately 18.66 GW of installed PV capacity at the end of 2024.

How much does a solar plant cost in Vietnam?

Vietnam's Ministry of Industry and Trade (MoIT) has published the new feed-in tariffs for utility-scale solar plants. For projects without battery storage, the tariff will be VND 1,382.7 ($0.053)/kWh for the northern part of the country, VND 1,107.1/kWh for the central part, and VND 1,012.0/kWh for the southern region.
