Who makes Square D circuit breakers?

DCPI steadily grew its business supplying Square D circuit breakers for four (4) years, until in mid 90's that Square D Company was bought by the French company—Schneider Electric. Schneider Electric eventually established an office in the Philippines in December 1996 and began direct importation of Square D circuit breakers under its name.

Who makes DCPI circuit breakers?

Initially importing Square D circuit breakers from the USA, it later became a Schneider Electric distributor. Over the years, DCPI expanded its product range, including products from 3M Philippines, Emerson Network Power, Federal Pacific Company, Danaher Power Solutions, and ABB.

What are the different types of circuit breakers?

They come in various types and sizes to accommodate different voltage levels and current ratings, ranging from small residential circuit breakers to large industrial circuit breakers. Circuit Breaker prices vary depending on the brand and electrical current capacity.

What is a circuit breaker?

A Circuit Breaker is an electrical device made from materials such as metals, insulating materials, and other mechanical and electronic components for operation and tripping mechanisms.
